Department of CIS
Subject: Web Engineering
Assignment Title: Blog Management System
Summer 2020,
Marks (60)

You are working as a Trainee Programmer in a software company named "Alt Tech". On the phase of Trainee Programmer your Supervisor is asking you to build a Blog Management System. You have to write a program by using Web programming language. The name of the program will be "Blog Management System". The system will have (minimum) following features:

- System will have user registration and authentication system.
- System will have two different user access that is 1) Blogger 2) Admin
- Blogger will be able to manage his/her blogs (blogger login is required).
- Admin will be able to monitor and control user's blogs.
- Admin will also be able to block or un-post blogs.
- Admin will be able to temporary block as well as unblock a user if needed.

Task-1 (25 Marks)

1) Produce a detail report regarding your system development and functionality with supporting screen dumps. Evaluation was expected in the documentation.

Task-2

This marks will be provided based on submitted code.

1) Appropriate use of PHP Syntax in program. (10 Marks)
2) Appropriate Description of code (Code Commenting) (5 Marks)

Task 3

1) Demonstration viva of your code (15 Marks)

Task 4

You are required to write a short report (150 words) analysing the system you have submitted. You should: Recommend improvements for further development of the system. (5 Marks)

Guidance

Consult with your tutor if you are uncertain about any aspect of this assignment.

Submission requirements

- Work report document
- A folder containing your system with login and database credentials

Note: Zip all your files in a folder and submit the zip file in LMS

Additional Information for Clarification

No framework should be used. Also, copying anything directly from anywhere will be declared as plagiarized.

End of Assignment

Good Luck